FEBRUARY 2010

Compiled and Distributed by:

CONGRESSMAN BOBBY BRIGHT

Member of Congress

The information in this guidebook was compiled and distributed by the Office of Congressman Bobby Bright. The purpose of this guidebook is to provide access to information regarding opportunities and assistance for job seekers and displaced workers. This guide is not intended to be a comprehensive listing of all available assistance options, rather it is intended to bring to your attention the programs that may be helpful to individuals in the Second District of Alabama who have become unemployed or are looking for career services. More information regarding these programs may can be obtained by contacting the appropriate federal or state agencies. Information, guidelines and requirements are subject to change at the discretion of the administrating agency.
